(By William G. Shepherd)
Vera Cruz, Mex., July 7.—Mexican federal troops stationed six miles from the American line are in a state of revolt. Senor Cabrera, General Carranza's representative here, declared messengers have reached here with information that the mutiny is spreading like wild fire and will reach the American line. The American officers believe Cabrera is unduly active in the matter. About 400 federalists sent word to the constitutionalists that they wished to surrender and declared they would march into the American lines, turning over their arms and ammunition to them.

General Punston has issued orders to the outposts to be on the lookout and not to fire upon them. If they actually surrender they will be treated like the federal troops which retreated from Ojinaga and were held at Ft. Bliss. Reports of the revolt in the federal troops astonished the American forces here. The federal nationalists that they wished to Esther cried and Dorothy put on more of the stuff. The mother heard Esther's cries and rushed to her assistance.

She was too late. Esther died of carbolic acid burns.

Indian Is Pardoned By President After 34 Years In Prison

Washington, July 7.—After 34 years behind the bars under life sentence for murder, Spokee, a Black Foot Indian, was unconditionally pardoned today by President Wilson. He will be released at once from the federal prison for the insane here, to return to his daughter at Browne, Montana, whom he has not seen since she was a baby.

A party of Black Foot Indians, who happened upon Spokee, who has grown grey with age, established his tribal identity by an Indian song and the use of the interpreters recognized in Spokee the hero of an old legend who had disappeared a score of years ago into some white man's jail. Black Foot Indians have been singing their children to sleep with a song about him ever since.

Officials of the Indian office advised of the discovery began an investigation which resulted in his pardon.

Spokee was charged with the murder of a white man near the Canadian boundary north of the Montana line. The Indian claims to have fired in self defense and his story was credited by the department of justice.

The police this afternoon arrested Mrs. Jackson, wife of the injured man, and she was charged with shooting with intent to kill. ## SLEUTHS SEEK CLUE IN FREEPORT CRIME

Freeport, N. Y., July 7.—Private and county detectives continued today their investigation of the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, who was so mysteriously shot while in the office of Dr. Edward Carman. The inquest into the murder adjourned yesterday to be resumed tomorrow unless the case is taken out of the coroner's hands by the grand jury.

Dr. Carman said today that he welcomed the arrival last night of the head of a national detective agency and his men.
"If the county had not hired this man, I would have done so when the inquest was concluded," he said.

Dr. Carman said he did not think the gunman intended to kill anyone, but only to scare them.

"I think the shooting was accidental," he said. "I do not believe that any one was intended to be killed." He admitted that Mrs. Carman was under suspicion but that nothing was found against her. They tried hard to get evidence, he added. Asked if Mrs. Carman had any reason to scare anyone he insisted she had not. He said that all talk of disagreement between them is now past history. It was said that an arrest would be made before night.

Philadelphia, July 7.—John Howe, of this city, who was reported to have telephoned David Kennedy of Freeport, in regard to a woman with whom Howe was residing, was found here today and confirmed that story told by Dr. Carman to detectives. Howe, who is in business here, said that some of his friends had been invited by a Freeport man and his wife to Great South Bay, L. I. in his motorboat. He would not give any names.

"We landed at an island," he said, "and ran across David Kennedy and Dr. Carman. I knew them both. The moment that we spied them the woman in our party screamed and ran back to the boat."

"I ran to the boat after her. I found her on a seat in hysterics. She was screaming 'That man ruined my husband and ruined me. I am going to kill him if it takes a life time.' She picked up a paper knife and started to leave the boat. I caught her and held her back and asked her whom she meant and she said Dr. Carman. She said she wanted to be taken home. When her husband came aboard the party returned to Freeport."

"Neither one of them spoke of the incident again," said Howe. "I did not try to find out the reason for it and never gave it another thought until I heard of this murder."

New York, July 7.—District Attorney Smith will present to the grand jury of Nassau county Thursday all the evidence that he had gathered as to the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in the office of Dr. Edward Carman at Freeport and ask for the indictment of a woman as the assassin who thrust a hand through a window and shot Mrs. Bailey to death.

Bitter warfare has developed among the county officials as a result of the investigation into the murder and it was learned today that this clash was the cause of Detective William J. Burns and his aide being called into the case in this warfare.

The district attorney and Sheriff Pettit are aligned against Acting Coroner Norton. The sheriff charged today that an attempt was being made to balk justice.

Columbus, O., July 7.—A delegation of Dayton business men called on Governor Cox today to protest against his program to enforce a cutting of tax rates throughout the state.

(By Lawrence Todd, staff correspondent of the International News Service.)

New York, July 7.—Waiting for word from the Argentine envoy in Washington, who is now bringing pressure to bear upon the Constitutionists from every possible source, the Huerta delegates in New York today declared themselves as still confident that a parley with the rebels will be held. "We are staying here until Minister Naon sends us definite information, which we think will be favorable," said Senor Balansa, head of the delegation.

"We are concerned only with bringing about peace and we rely upon the one mediator, who is in Washington and is in touch with the authorities there to notify us of the result of his work in that direction. We do not know directly as to the errand of Mr. Silliman, who has been sent to Saltillo. We believe that delegates will be sent here to discuss peace."

Others in the Mexican party stated that they relied upon the fact that Minister Naon now feels it incumbent upon him as the spokesman of the mediators who took credit for proposing the direct negotiations between the Huerta and Carranza faction to bring about this direct conference. His fellow mediators do not sympathize with his anxiety, believing that the party will accomplish nothing.

MEXICO

forces outside of Vera Cruz were supposed to be picked troops selected to guard the road to Vera Cruz, which is Huerta's only possible means of escape.

Senor Cabero has sent word to Carranza that the federalists along the road are shouting "Viva Carranza" and wish to join him. Three hundred soldiers started the revolt and created a wild scene in the federal camp. They openly declared their intention of marching into the American lines and laying down their arms. The federal generals have not sufficient troops to put down the revolt.

General Maas, the federal commander, wired General Funston that if he were unable to restrain the mutineers, and if an attack should be made on the American outposts, it should not be construed as an order from the government, but only as a mob demonstration.

According to one special message from Villa dated at Torreon, differences between himself and Carranza are being satisfactorily adjusted.

SEES FATHER FIRST

Serving a meal to her father, whom she had not seen since she was a mere baby of two years of age, he having mysteriously disappeared 33 years ago, was the novel experience of Mrs. Nora Conklin, proprietress of the Arlington hotel restaurant, Sunday.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, etiquette, dress, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a nice young man with a good education and lots of money. I am entertaining and a good dresser, but still I don't seem to be very popular with the girls. Why is this? I am a good conversationalist, and I think I am very entertaining. In fact I am very entertaining, could desire, and I think they ought to be proud to be seen in my company, but alas, they are not. Can you tell me the reason, Dolly dear?

OBSCURE YOUNG MAN.
One reason is that you think too much of yourself. If you go through the same rigmarole that you have written me to every girl you meet, I don't wonder that they shy away from you. You are coming. Even if you are all you say you are, don't you think they are just as clever people in the world as you are, even if they are not always telling people how much they know. You cannot jump into people's affection, you have to move slowly and study as you go. I think if you will forget about yourself for awhile and get interested in some sensible girl, and try and make this particular person like you, you will succeed.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please tell me something I can do for my eyebrows which are very light and scanty. I have tried vaseline for a long time with no good results. Mother won't let me use a pencil on them. JESS.

If your eyebrows are so light that they do not show at all, an eyebrow pencil is the best thing to use, if you are careful not to make the brows too black—that would give you a "fast" look. The ends of a burned match, carefully manipulated, will darken the brows somewhat.

Dear Miss Wise.—When out riding is it proper for the man to put his arm on the back of the seat?

WANT TO KNOW.
If he is out by himself it is all right, but if he has a young lady with him he should keep his arms where they belong. If he doesn't don't go riding with him.

Dear Dolly.—Do you think it improper for young ladies to wear slit skirts?

SUSIE.
A skirt slit to the knees is very improper, but a slit that shows only the ankle will do no harm and it gives more freedom in walking, during this day of the tight skirts.

IN ALL OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

There is Hardly A Woman Who Does Not Rely Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Princeton, Ill.—"I had inflammation, hard headaches in the back of my neck and a weakness all caused by female trouble, and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with such excellent results that I am now feeling fine. I recommend the Compound and praise it to all. I shall be glad to have you publish my letter. There is surely a need for it around you. Mrs. J. F. JOHNSON, R. No. 4, Box 90, Princeton, Illinois.

Experience of a Nurse.
Poland, N. Y.—"In my experience as a nurse I certainly think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a great medicine. I wish all women with female troubles would take it. I took it when passing through the change of life with great results and I always recommend the Compound to all my patients. I will gladly do all I can to help others to know of this great medicine. Mrs. HORACE NEWMAN, Poland, Herkimer Co., N. Y.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., confidentially Lynn, Mass.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a married woman with one little daughter, but do not love my husband very well. There is another man I think I love better. Should I get a divorce and marry him?

WORRIED WIFE.
No. Stick to your husband and baby. What right have you to fall in love with another man, when you are married and have a little baby? Even if you do not love your husband any more, you should remember your duty to your child and her right to have her own father. If you divorced your husband the other man would not marry you. Better stay on the safe side and try and be a good wife and mother. You can if you will only half try. Put this other man out of your thoughts and life forever. Do it now, before it is too late.

Dear Dolly.—What should the conversation be about in the company with girls?

HASHPUL ROY.
Talk about current events, the different amusements, which one you prefer, and let the girls talk about themselves, they will like you ever so much better. If you do, girls as a rule, can always find something to talk about, if they have to resort to nonsense.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please tell me where we can get a picture of Kathryn Williams. She is in the "Adventures of Kathryn."

TWO CHILDS.
Buy a copy of The Motion Picture Magazine and you will find the address of a firm who sells her picture in the back of it. This book can be purchased at the Columbia theatre or at the local news stands.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Please tell me the names of the daily papers at Detroit, Mich., Toledo, Ohio, and Huntington, W. Va., also will a boy 15 years old be allowed to quit school when he is only in the fourth grade, providing he is working?

TOMMY P.
The Detroit Free Press and The Detroit News, The Toledo Blade, and Toledo News Bee, The Huntington Advertiser, which is an evening paper and the Herald-Dispatch, a morning paper. No. The law says a boy must go to school until he is 16.

P. W.—You need not acknowledge the announcement unless you want to. However, if you do, just write a friendly note to your friend and wish he and his bride much happiness.

Dear Dolly.—What is a harmless remedy for removing hairs from the forehead?

EDITED.
I never heard of any one having hairs on their forehead. If they are up near your other hairs leave them alone, cause they might be little bangs. However, if they are in the center of your forehead why not make use of a razor? Are you sure they are not your eyebrows, Edith?

Dear Dolly.—Is petroleum jelly as good for the scalp as vaseline?

DANDERINE.

At the Motordrome. Millbrook Park! Afternoon and Evening

Commencing tonight the management of Millbrook Park has booked the monstrous, portable Motordrome of the Goading Amusement company of Chicago, which will afford the public a wonderful performance of motorcycle racing, such as has never before been presented. "Daredevils" riding on the "crazy" famous "cylinder" "Cyclone" Woodland and "Daredevil" "Giles." This Motordrome is 26 feet long and 240 feet in circumference. Part of the walls extend perpendicular in the air, a sheer straight-up and down track for the motorcycle riders. These death-defying riders are held between safety and destruction by their own speed. Many other death defying deeds by these daredevil demons. This motordrome showed in Columbus for five weeks and played to over 40,000 people. The management has on deposit $100 to be paid to any man, barring none, who will duplicate the riding of these two daredevils.

One of the distinct musical hits of the rapidly closing Chautauquin was the appearance of Francesco Penula's band, which rendered a delightful concert Monday afternoon and came back with a varied program Monday night.

selections to be the best of the program. "The Misere" was also nicely rendered and drew forth much applause. As a closing number the band played a series of Southern melodies and then melted into national airs that aroused every one present and the concert closed in the proverbial blaze of glory.

Perullo is absolutely unique. Among all the bandmasters who have toured this country from one extremity to the other there is none more resourceful and authoritative than Perullo in the conveyance to his men of his own ideas of interpretation. His band flashes like lightning. His style is individual, picturesque, fascinating and inimitable.

Monday night's audience was especially liberal with its applause and many encores were requested by Perello. In these he played the lighter selections that please the ear, but did an early death in the musical world. It was in the rendition over the classic old favorites such as "The Sextet From Lucia" by Donizetti and "William Tell" and selections from "Carmen" that the band showed its real ability and technique. Selections from "Carmen" were exceptionally well rendered and called for a most hearty encore. "The Irish Sextet," a universal favorite was beautifully played, the cornetist getting in some fine work in this number. The woodwinds also backed it cleverly and those not musically inclined revelled in the sweet melody.

Perullo's longest engagements in recent years, include two weeks at Palm Garden in Los Angeles, sixteen weeks at the Coliseum in Chicago, four weeks at Lakeside Park in Denver, eighteen weeks at Delmar Garden in St. Louis, six weeks at Idora Park in Oakland, California, and similar periods in Spokane, Seattle, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh and other cities of size.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley addressed a big crowd at the Chautauque this afternoon.

John Begg, representing the Ohio State Agricultural Department, will be on the Chautauque program of Wednesday. His address will follow the lecture of Mr. Knox at which time the doors will be open to all. Mr. Begg will lecture on general agriculture and it will be well worth while for those interested to be in attendance.

Down below the dyke, Tuesday morning, while the dew was on the meadows and the crickets still sang their morning carol, a group of boys to the number of thirty odd, stowed away 250 portions of food, and then, in the twinkling of an eye, looked upon an improvised kitchen, which spluttered and smoked, as if it were a real one. J. G. Schaubly, manager of the Redpath Chautauque, here stepped in to help the boys, and to help the chief cook and his assistants. While the boys justly gloried in an attempt to reach the griddle, ice-cream, macaroni and Scott, Judge A. Z. Blair, Fred Winter looked on in amazed astonishment, wondering why they had such ravenous appetites when they were kids.

America had it on them forty different ways when it came to the simple matter of appetite.

After the corn cake feast, the boys assembled in a circle and short impressive talks were made by the men folk, who declared the crowd of boys to be the most manly they had ever encountered.

Mr. Fry arranged his gridiron cooking of a huge piece of pastrami on a bed of coals over a bed of iron, which was held up by wooden legs. A woman was soon started underneath the latter mixed up proceeds of the show. After the gridiron was well greased, Mr. Fry began flip-flopping the steaks, which were delicious morsels judging from the way they made them disappear. Mr. Blake Blair and Dr. S. A. Smith were the caterers, and the eating game and the show were over for a round or two when they admitted that your

New Boston Takes Steps For Paving Of Several Streets

The New Boston council met in their first session of the month Monday evening at the council chamber on Gallia pike with four members present, W. T. Harr being the absentee. A resolution instructing the village solicitor, Will J. Meyer to bring in the necessary legislation for the paving of Gallia pike from the east corporation line to the west side of Park avenue, Harrisonville pike from Gallia pike to north corporation line; Park avenue from Gallia pike to south side of Rhodes avenue; and Rhodes avenue from the east side of Park avenue to the west side of West avenue was the thing of great importance during the session.

Bills amounting to $406.63 were read and approved. The seventh and last estimate calling for $521.80 was paid William Odle on his contract for the cutting down of Harrisonville pike. The work was completed two weeks ago. Mayor Sam Davis turned in his report for the month of June and the amount of fines and licenses collected was the biggest ever presented during the last five years. The total of fines amounted to $105.30, $19 for building permits issued, and $20 for two licenses granted ice cream vendors.

Charles Dixon as chairman of the street committee, reported that the street committee met with the county commissioners at the court house Monday afternoon but that they obtained no satisfaction as to whether or not the county would be willing to stand part of the village's expense in paving Gallia pike. The commissioners promised that some action would be taken on their plan Tuesday.

An ordinance calling for an advance draw of the village's budget fund for the last half of the year was read and passed for adoption. An ordinance granting the Portsmouth Steel company privilege to erect a monorial between their plants on the east and west sides of Ohio avenue was also passed as read. The monorial will carry a large crane between the two buildings. The steel company is to pay all damages resulting from the erection of said contrivance.

A small tract of land at the head of Park avenue will be used to widen the turn at the Harrisonville pike and Gallia pike where they meet Park avenue. Village Engineer Sam Harper was asked to read his estimate on the paving of Harrisonville pike and Rhodes avenue. It had not been decided to pave Gallia pike and Park avenue until last night's meeting, therefore Mr. Harper did not have estimates on the latter two streets, but will have the estimates ready by the next session of council. ### CAN'T DENY IT

If This Had Happened Elsewhere
Instead of Portsmouth You Might Deny It.

The average man is a doubter. This is not surprising—the public have been humbugged so frequently they are skeptical. Proof like the following will stand investigation. It cannot be disputed.

Mrs. Lizzie McKinney, 706 Finley street, Portsmouth, Ohio, says: "I was in a terrible condition with kidney complaint. I was bedfast for three weeks, and even when I was able to get up, my back pained me dreadfully. I had severe headaches and was greatly annoyed by the kidney secretions. My parents advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and as the physician had failed to do me any good, I procured a box at Fisher & Streich's Drug Store. They helped me, so I continued, with the result that in a few weeks I had fully recovered. I haven't had to use any kidney medicine since."

RE-ENDORSEMENT
When Mrs. McKinney was interviewed later, she said: "Whenever any of us feel the least bit of trouble from weak kidneys, we use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have never failed us. I am glad to endorse them again."

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Boy Scout Outing.

(Contributed)
Fullerton, Ky., July 1.—Thursday, July 2nd, bright and early found the Fullerton Boy Scouts on their way to camp, each boy carrying his blanket, food and tent, started on a five-mile hike to Scholts, Ky. Back of Fullerton the scouts met at the home of their scout master, Donald H. Wells. The weather was warm and the sun was hot. But the little fellows surely did enjoy it. Camp was reached about 9 a. m. Two scouts went to the Brown home and got permission to camp on his farm. Mr. Brown being a good man, gave the boys permission to camp on his place and stay as long as they liked, and also offered a helping hand to aid and help the boys in every way possible. The good news was brought to camp and the tents were set up at once and all preparations were made for cooking. Once everything was in order, the camp-ground cleared off and the old bean pot swung over the fire, the boys began to enjoy real outdoor life. The camp grounds was an ideal place, with a good swimming-hole, good fishing, lots of frogs and a fine ball diamond, and the boys spent the days as follows: At 4:30 a. m. all out of bed, 5:00 o'clock all take a dip in the old swimming-hole, 8:30 o'clock breakfast, 7:00 o'clock, air out tents and bed clothes, 8:00 o'clock signalling and counting, 9:00 o'clock, ball game, 11:30 o'clock, dinner. Afternoon spent in swimming, fishing and scouting. After two days and nights the boys were ready to start on their hike home.

Money Won't Buy Everything

Sordid persons have made the statement that money will buy anything. While this is true in part and the person with money finds many doors open to him which would be slammed in his face if he were poor, yet, the most desirable things in life cannot be bought at any price.

Every person who has been touched by the blighted hand of disease, longed for health more than anything else in the world. But time again, anyone suffering from anything will not buy even good health, any form of chronic nerve, blood, though it may be the means to such stomach, liver, kidney or bladder ailment with the more fortunate ones, disease, should call on the B. But some there are who cannot be chronic doctors and be examined, cured by any doctor or medicine, free of charge to determine whether how many have spent fortunes in their own case can be saved the vain search for health, only to find themselves again and again disappointed and overtaken at last by the Grim Reaper.

The days of life are not dark days for every sick person, however, as could possibly be.

RICKEY IS CONFIDENT

After a short visit to friends here and to home folks in Lucasville, where he was warmly congratulated over his success as manager of the St. Louis Browns, Branch Rickey left Monday at midnight over the C. & O. for Washington, where his team is scheduled to play today.

Mr. Rickey who was formerly the base ball director at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor is the youngest manager in either of the major leagues. He has met with signal success in the Mount City, lifting a hopelessly tail-end club to a first division berth. Rickey is wearing his new laurels with becoming modest. He declared before leaving the city that if he is fortunate in digging up a good young catcher his team will have a chance to cop the pennant in the American League.

(By Frank G. Munke)

New York, July 7. The Chicago Cubs seem to be considerably among the present darlings the last week of two, and the Giants, who had figured in the 1931 National League in being very silent, now have awakened to find that they are no longer the "dead" team, but a hot defense pilot hovers over them once again.

Frank O'Day, after getting away to a good start, seems to have his gang working with almost the same remarkable regularity that made the Cubs famous and, barring accidents, the Chicago outfit may get back and horn its way into the world's game.

The Cubs have a lead that some people would term commanding, but is nothing to get over confident about. It is said that a week or so of hard hitting chip away, and with the end of the season still 11 weeks off there is every reason for the Cubs to feel hopeful about the ultimate outcome of the case as it concerns them.

The best part of the Cubs' position is the fact that the center field has been secured. Frank has the job of it, and instead of pulling about in different ways the gang is pulling together for Frank and for victory.

Earlier in the year when the Cubs were going like a tame and chained mule, Harry Hoeselman, Tommy Leach and Frank Schulte, in whose hands the didn't exert themselves overly much, according to reports. Texas said that if Hank continued to make a poor showing as manager he would be deposited sooner or later and that the job of handling the Cubs would be given over to one of the idols. So why work your head off to win games when by losing them it brings about the possibility of becoming a manager? The condition of every major league ball player?

But all of a sudden the Cubs began to stir up some interest in the vicinity of the center of the process. The Cubs' outfield began pitching in real form, the infield on fourth ball began working with machine-like regularity, and the whole gang began hitting like fools. From a position near the bottom of the heap the Cubs shot up fast into the first-place race, and seemed surprised by the move.

They continued to play at a 300 clip, and although they score have received a couple of setbacks, they seem to have the power to do a great "come-back" and remain in the come-back position right to the end, her tape.

Hank isn't making pennant predictions, but his bench has become fired with the idea of landing on top of the heap, and right now they are showing as much "hot" as you can find in the box.

Hank's pitching staff is a bit weaker. He needs one seasoned, reliable member to hold it up, and he needs a hard hitting addition to his outfield (given this pair, for which he is searching both day and night, and the Cubs' fans may yet rant on the policy of seeing a world's series couple staged in their home town).

Guides a number of our best ball players and experts are considering the possibility of the Giants; but it seems quite a bit too early for making such a award. Even if the Cubs' outfit doesn't lose, the Pirates still look dangerous. And the Reds may recover from the slump of the past few weeks. If the Cubs are to succeed in the pennant race, they may be able to walk the thistle enough during the rest of the season to give some other team a chance to close up the gap that divides the Giants and their nearest rivals.

The Braves seem to be coming along at a pretty good rate, too. There isn't one chance in one hundred that they'll grab the pennant, but they may do a number of stunts that will considerably jump up the pennant situation. The Braves have a habit of landing into the stretch during the final weeks of the season, and you know what they will turn upon the Cubs pretty shortly and soak the champions with such force as to considerably weaken the clutch the Cubs have on the first rung of the ladder.

Fox should be a real lightweight contender at the Olympic stadium in London tonight when Lightwight faces Willie Ritchie, champion of Wales. Lightwight, champion of Canada, it will be a case of an extremely clever boxer heading up with a champion fighter with a kick in each hand.

Lightwight will toe the scratch and expect punches with the big boys, says the opinion of many who are of the opinion that Lightwight might still have to be dropped in his corner by the latter part of the night. If Welsh is confident he can ground and do the time, why, he will stick it out and will probably get the decision, as Welch is a very clever boxer, but a light fatter. Ritchie fought a 20-round draw with Welsh several years ago and he knows the words that the "Puncher" has in the punchline line.

At any rate it will be a good fight as both men are scientific and have the stamina to stage a real championship battle.

earning the blow-up of the trousers the Daily Register has the right to say:

—About doubling after Sunday's loss, stated that the reason for the team going out of the league was that they did not get the support of the bank and the people of the city. At the outset of the league the bank looked doubtful. The team went into the league a winner with a boy at the head of the team, with his years of experience as a player, was qualified to place the team at the top of the league, and for the first few weeks the team was leading for the position at the top of the league. They had a knock-out win of the city of Portland with all backed bright but the fans did not come out to see the games.
The president of the club and all of the officers paid their own way and the team carried heavy losses. Then the president, but still the money did not come, a "big" owner of the team came into the box office and the directors held a meeting and decided to sell the team for the best price, which was $100. The contract with the old Portland State league made running over them and with the same people rarely playing the first on work days the team still went out without games and at the time the bank wanted them and they were in fourth place.

Thus meaning they were brought to the city and paid out by the league and given their third round. The men who were drafted by the other teams went to report and the five men who are destined to be up prepared to go in a few days to the city and be de-fected from the city and the boys with them to talk of another bid for the first place in the city when they are reduced into the city by the league.

—This man, who was driven by Messrs.
Wilde is the only one of the men who saw that this was a plot. All the other men were in the prison, that the team was not and had made about two weeks and had a "big" owner of the team who was a "big" owner of the team and it is there will get paid up in full by the Portland club.

Harry N. W., the secretary, by the club management.

The "Million Dollar Mystery"
At Exhibit Theatre Tonight.

Tonight is the night of all nights at the Exhibit theatre on Gallia street. The second installment of the "Million Dollar Mystery" will be shown and according to Manager Law who saw the two reels in Cincinnati, recently is the most exciting drama he ever witnessed. "The Million Dollar Mystery" is the talk of the motion show world. In all the larger cities, managers of motion picture theatres offered all sorts of tribute for this wonderful feature, and crowds fairly surge in to the amusement places that were so fortunate as to procure it. Last Tuesday night the first installment of this great production was shown. Hundreds of patrons stopped to compliment Manager Law upon the production, claiming that it was without a doubt, better than the advertisements couched. Tonight will be even better than last week and all those who witnessed the show last Tuesday will be back again, which with the additional number of new patrons will mean the Exhibit will be packed from canvas to exits. However, Manager Law has made ample provisions to handle the crowd. You are assured of a nice, comfortable seat. Remember, a prize of $10,000 awaits the person who will write the best 100 word descriptive essay of the "Million Dollar Mystery." Probably you can win the prize. Then, see the show tonight and every Tuesday night, for there is not a single solitary repetition during the showing of the seven miles of film that cost more than a million dollars in the making.

"Ishmael" presented by the Casino Players last night met with hearty approval by a comfortably filled house. The play is taken from Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth's novel of the same name and dramatized by our Jacksonville who has endeared himself to all theatre goers.

The play went along very smoothly and was right up to the standard that the company have set.

The story is of high society life with a mixture of Bowery living by an East Side New Yorker. Naturally that part fell to Jack Regan who made the most of his opportunities.

Miss Wayne as Claudia Merline carries her part most artistically.

Mr. White as Ishmael Worth is leaving himself quite a favorite with the Casino patrons and his work last night won much applause.

Mr. Earle as Judge Merline looked and acted the part to perfection.

Miss Marcena made a charming dainty Beatrice Middleton.

Mr. Walls as Burghie, a friend of Ishmael's, and Mr. Carousas as Seelley were very good.

"Ishmael" will be produced all this week with the usual successes. Following week Forgette Walter's great play of the North West will be given its first presentation in Portsmouth where crowded houses are expected.

PLEASANT GREEN ANNIVERSARY

The program will be full of inspiration and information. Among other special features Rev. Addison P. Haley, the only charter member left, will tell of the morning service how, when and where the church was organized. In the afternoon several phases of the church's early history will be discussed by the members with an address by some prominent speaker. At night a special treat will come to us through addresses from prominent speakers.

KENTUCKY OFFICER UP AGAINST MAYOR

Jim Johnson a deputized officer from Carter county, Ky., unexpectedly bumped up against Mayor Adam Erick after taking Dave Hall into custody at the point of a gun Tuesday morning. Johnson carried a warrant for Hall's arrest for alleged falsifying a witness in the case of Kate Taliver, charged with the murder of a boy named Prady in Carter county a few weeks ago. It seems a reward of $25 had been offered for his capture. Johnson came here last week and took employment with Kelley Bros. the same contractors for whom Hall was working. Tuesday morning he suggested to Hall that they take a trip up into the mountains, assuring him they would get better wages there. Hall refused, saying he could not leave his family, who live at New Boston. It was then Johnson is said to have covered him with a gun and applied handcuffs. He brought him to town but when they got down Market street Hall balked at going any further with requisition papers though offering to give himself up to the local authorities. Police Chief W. T. McFarley was sent for and he took Hall into custody.

The mayor held that Johnson had no right to take the other without requisition papers and therefore ordered Hall held until the governor of Kentucky made appeal to the governor of Ohio for the delivery of the man. Hall claimed he was entirely innocent of any wrong doing.

HUGHES DID NOT GET A PARDON

Hon. Theo. K. Funk was greatly disappointed upon receipt of the news that the Fourth of July pardon went to a prisoner from Northern Ohio instead of Jarred Hughes, who was sent up for life from Portsmouth. "I felt certain that Warden Thomas would give the pardon to Hughes," said Mr. Funk Monday. "I shall now go before the pardon board and ask for a full pardon for Hughes as he is deserving of it."

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Columbus, July 7.—Governor Don's call for a special legislative session to reduce the state tax levy will probably be issued late this week. The date of its issuance is dependent upon the governor's receipt from the state tax commission of a report showing how much of a cut may be made without lessening the efficiency of the public service. A one-day session will probably be held during the week of July 20.

Business Changes In The East End

A number of changes in sites of business establishments are being enacted in the East End. The store of John Voelker and company has been moved from the old stand corner of Eleventh and Lawson streets to the new building just completed on Eleventh street, west of Lawson. The transfer was made on the Fourth. While the new store is not entirely completed the firm is looking after its trade. A formal opening will not take place for a week or ten days. Much additional shelving is being installed and the interior of the building is to receive a new dress of varnish and paint.
J. F. Lemon and company have commenced moving their shoe store to the new building on Galia street. A week or ten days will be required in which to completely finish the room but patrons will be accommodated at the new stand.

Tuesday noon work was commenced on remodeling the building at the corner of Eleventh and Lawson streets to be occupied by the East End Furniture company. The improvements when completed will give the furniture firm one of the most pretentious stands in the city.

As soon as the Voelker basement is completed a pool and billiard parlor will be opened by Messrs. Walter and O. A. Snittle.

The glorious Fourth of July has come and gone. The day passed quietly enough in and around Fullerton. No fights recorded and as far as can be learned no heads were peeled anywhere in this end of the county. One man from Portsmouth was arrested and put under bond for carrying a concealed weapon and will have to answer to our circuit court for same. People no doubt will learn some day that all lawless people are not Kentuckians and that Kentucky law is just as good as any other law and must be respected.
